KENNARD-DALE HIGH SCHOOL
FAWN GROVE
PENNSYLVANIA
1964-1965

Foreword

We, the Seniors, wish to invite you to share in this annual the pleasures and joys of our high school careers. Although, we, the Class of 1965, will be leaving, there will remain the many organizations and activities in which we have participated and which we have enjoyed.

In selecting our theme, THE FULL CIRCLE, we have thought not only of our activities and remembrances, but of all the phases of high school life which constitutes our FULL CIRCLE at Kennard-Dale.

Dedication

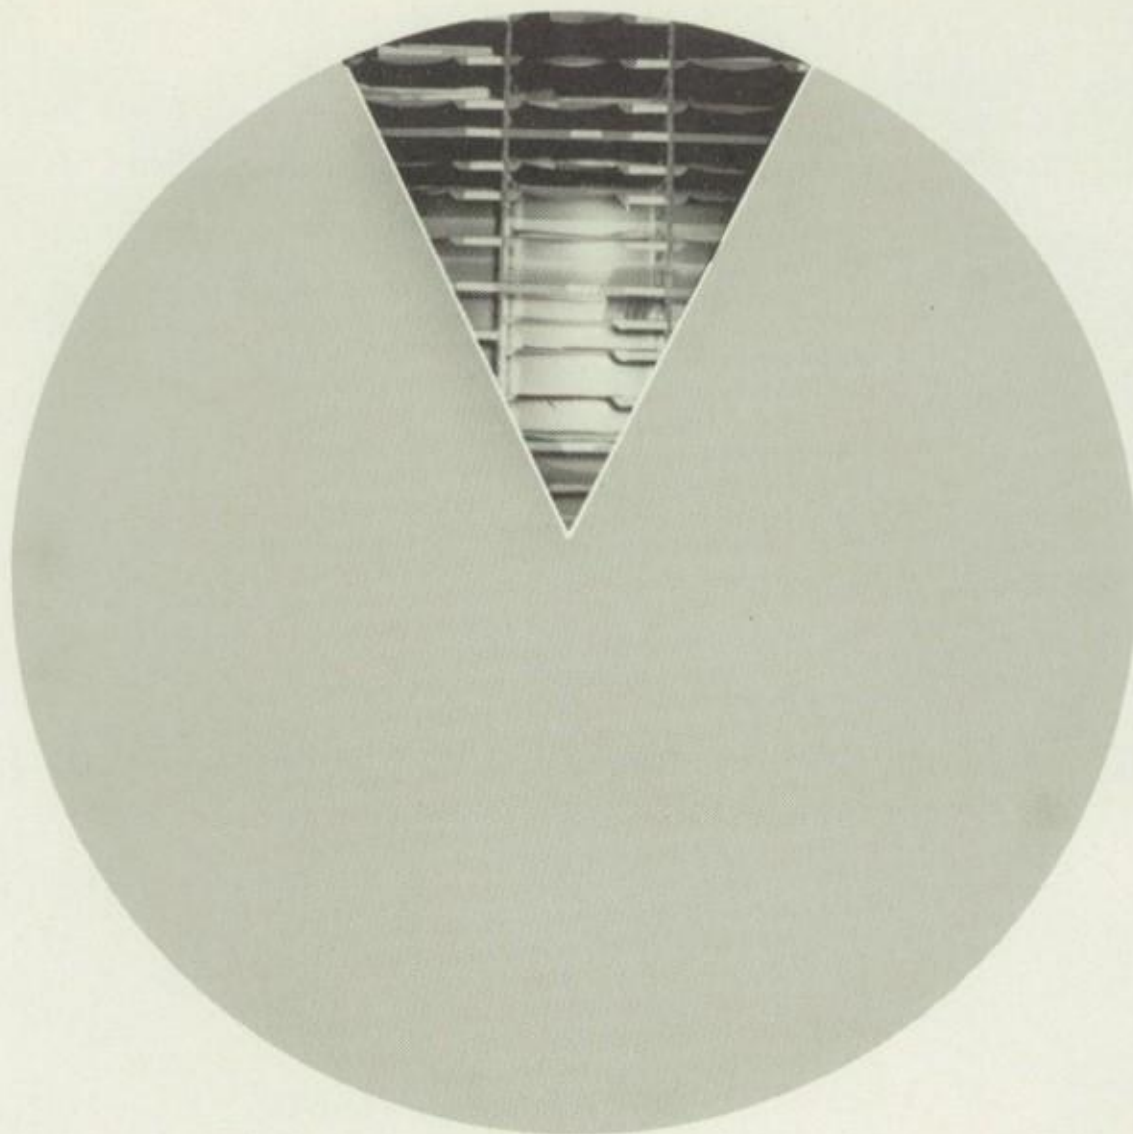

NEIL B. BLAKE

We, the 1965 Fawn staff, wish to take this opportunity to express our appreciation and gratitude to a person whom, we feel, has contributed much to the benefit of the school and its students.

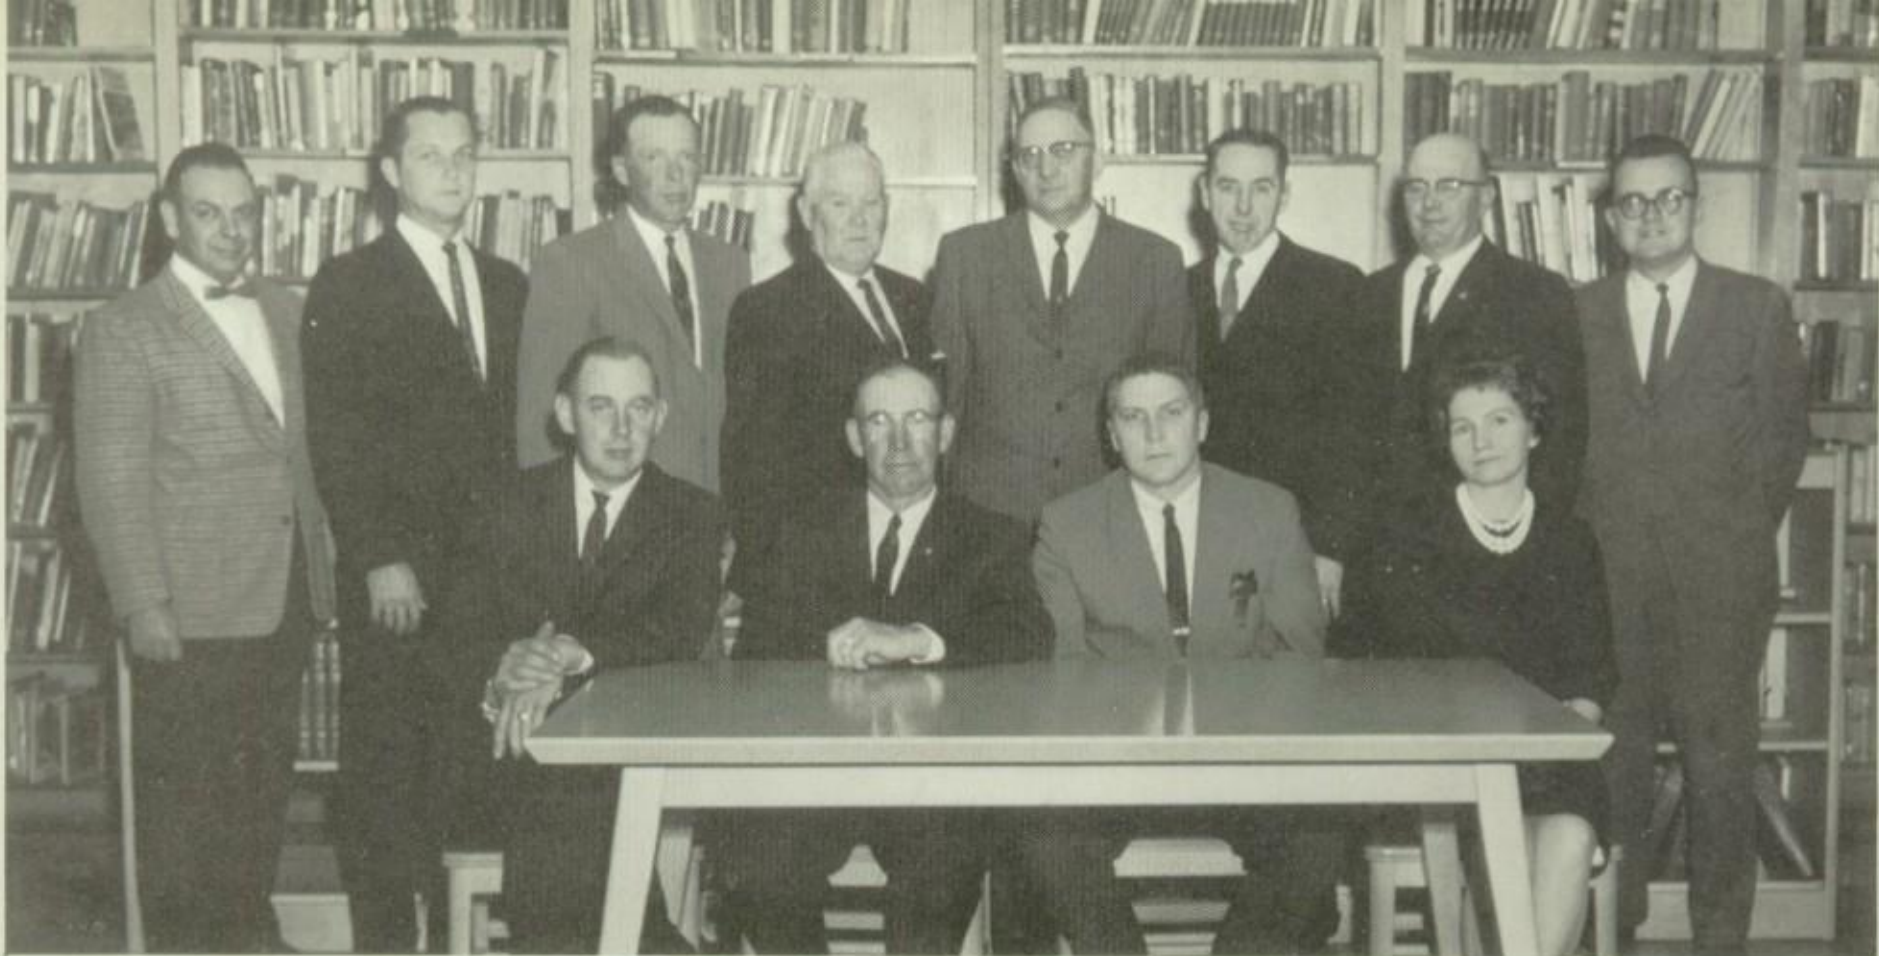

This person, having been a football coach here at Kennard-Dale for six years, has willingly devoted his time to show our teams fine sportsmanship and honesty.

This year, he has taken on a position, which has a greater importance to us Seniors than to any other class. We are speaking of a close friend, confidant, and guidance counselor, Mr. Neil B. Blake. To this devoted man, we proudly dedicate this edition of the 1965 Fawn.

Although the keystone is the last and most important stone in an arch, we place it as our first section in our full circle symbolizing the administration and faculty as the keystone of Kennard-Dale. Without their guidance and patience our high school career would certainly have been fruitless. To these devoted people, we, the Class of 1965, say, "Thank you."

SCHOOL BOARD: Carl Manifold, Treasurer; Guy Allen, President; Hyde Dooley, Vice President; Marie Pomraning, Secretary. Standing: Robert Ruff, Lloyd Eyster, Paul Webb, Charles Lutton, T. Morris Scott, R. Roland Morris, Clay Shaw, J. Ross McGinnis.

Dear Seniors:

May I offer you a thought or two of optimism about the world in which you live?

One may be easily discouraged by newspaper headlines and prophets of doom and hastily conclude that your generation's future is a grievous one. This I do not believe.

About the time of your birth there began a period of rapid discovery, and a period of revolution in politics, science, medicine, and art. Such changes coming in quick succession have created problems yet unsolved, disagreements, and some violence.

Yet today no major war exists in the world and there IS an international forum where men may resolve their differences. Forty-six new nations have emerged in the world since your birth and are struggling to learn to govern themselves as our country once did. People throughout the world are recognizing the dignity of all men and are doing something constructive about oppression of the minorities. We, in the United States, are living in a time of prosperity with standards of living higher than they have ever been before.

To me it seems your future is bright—a world changing for the better. Your generation has a great challenge to work for more understanding among men and a continually improving world in which to live.

It is my hope that we have prepared you, to a degree at least, for this task.

Yours truly,
Eldon S. Webb

Class History

We, the Class of 1965, entered Kennard-Dale in September of 1959 as seventh graders full of excitement, fear, and expectation. This year our accomplishments were few, but getting acquainted was a big task and we did it well.

In the eighth grade we sponsored our first dance entitled Shamrock Hop. It was held on March 13, 1961. We took our first class trip that year to the Gettysburg Battlefield. The following year we went to the Franklin Institute in Philadelphia.

As sophomores we faced new responsibilities upon entering senior high, new clubs, new challenges, new experiences. Again we sponsored a record hop. We went to the Philadelphia Museum of Art and the Hagley Museum on our class trip.

During our junior year we sponsored the Junior-Senior Prom and called our creation Blue Hawaii. We visited Washington on our class trip. Also we ventured in dramatics by doing Thornton Wilder's "The Skin of Our Teeth."

In our senior year we did "It Happens Every Summer" by David Rodgers as our theatrical contribution, sponsored the annual Christmas Dance, titling it The Night Before Christmas, and again visited Washington, D.C. on our class trip.

Our Class colors are baby blue and silver, our flower—the white carnation, and our motto—"When you're feeling sad and blue, look at the mighty oak tree and see what a nut can do."

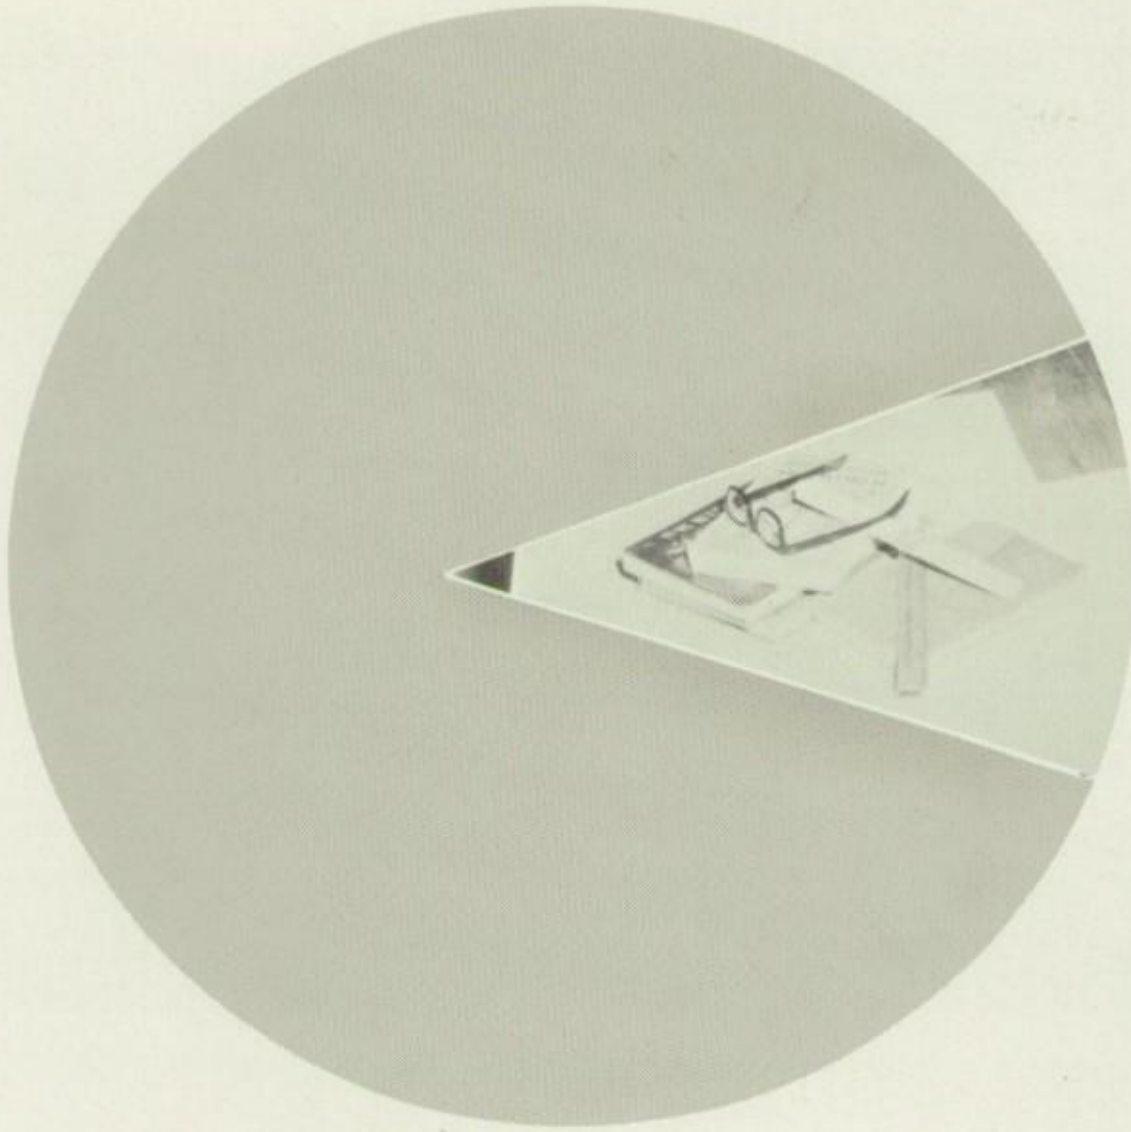

And now, as seniors, we prepare to graduate and in doing so, we look back with fond memories on the past six years and in our departure we, the Class of 1965, only hope that the members of succeeding classes find as much enjoyment during their high school years as we have known.

A well-known hall that is rarely seen as this.

UNDERCLASSMEN

To the underclassmen, we, the Seniors, give the fun and excitement of high school—not to mention the hard work and many frustrations. For us, our high school career is over; many are relieved, many, regretful. But to the underclassmen, each day should be remembered, for soon your high school career will be over and you will find, "These are really the best days of your life."

M U S I C

A most worthy contribution to our full circle is the Music Department. Our school life would not be complete without these groups. Throughout our school years these groups have provided us with many enjoyable concerts and musical programs.

We wish to extend special congratulations to those people who have used their talents to the fullest extent and have been successful in becoming a part of the District and Regional Chorus and District Band.

We, also wish to express our thanks to our musical leaders, Mr. Gingrich, Mr. Dougherty, and Mrs. Boyle, for their patience and hard work to present the students and the public with such talented musical groups.

Most of all, we would like to express our sincere gratitude to all students who have participated in this musical program to give it the touch of quality that is enjoyed and appreciated by all.

"The Skin of Our Teeth" was presented by the junior class on April 24 and 25.

"Greetings and Hallucinations!" was the greeting to the audience on this night. What could this mean! I do believe we're in for something new and full of excitement and suspense.

Before we knew it we were whisked away into the wacky and wonderful life of George Antrobus and Company.

Throughout the evening you never knew what was coming next! At one moment if you looked out a window, what did you see but a dinosaur and mammoth passing by looking for warmth which they found here at the home of the Antrobuses.

Well, you nearly fell through your seats when this event occurred! The walls began to quiver and jump up and down and immediately following this the walls completely flew up in the air and disappeared. It just goes to show—you never know what's coming or going.

As you traveled throughout the evening with the Antrobuses, with their never ending escapades, it must have really proved to be a most delightful evening at the theater.

You must try to understand these important matters!

Senior Class Play

"It Happens Every Summer," a three-act comedy by David Rodgers, was presented by the senior class on November 13 and 14.

The play takes place in New York City during last June. The main center of attraction is the main office of Debutante magazine on the first Monday in June.

A group of girls came here each summer who were interested in working on a magazine staff after completion of their educations.

That Monday was a challenge for many young girls from many parts of the United States. We had quite a variety, from the North, South, East, and West. They were all quite on edge as they appeared before Mrs. Woodruff who is the editor of the magazine.

As the weeks progress we watch our young beauties fall in and out of love as the mood suits them. Finally, the summer is over and the Debutante office becomes normal again.

Busy day at the office, I see!!

Christmas Dance

MEMBERS OF THE COURT—D. Wolf, E. Kreiss, H. Wales, J. Heibeck, King; K. Hershner, Queen; S. Lloyd, J. Scarborough, L. Zimmerman.

"Twas the Night Before Christmas" was the theme at the annual Christmas Dance held in the Kennard-Dale gymnasium on December 19, 1964 from 8-11:30. It was sponsored by the senior class and decorated so as to create a most Christmasy atmosphere. The center contained a huge tree and in one corner we find the children gathered about the traditional fireplace hanging their stockings so confident that Santa will be there to fill them. Of course, we had a visit from Santa Claus who treated everyone.

Music for this most delightful evening was provided by Vince Groft and his orchestra.

The court was selected by the senior class. Last year's royal couple, Patricia Warfield and James Quesenberry, crowned the King and Queen and presented the other members with their corsages and boutonnieres.

Refreshments were served in the cafeteria during an intermission.

The dance was open to all members of senior high, their invited guests, and alumni.

Homecoming

HOMECOMING COURT—Kathy Poff, Kristine Hershner, Colleen McGreevy, Queen. Absent: Linda Zimmerman.

Each year to highlight our football season coming to a close, a queen is chosen from the senior class. She and her court reign over the Homecoming game.

She is chosen on the basis of her participation and spirit during our sports season. She is one who gets along well with others and is considered by all a true representative of the spirit of our Kennard-Dale students.

In an Hawaiian garden.

Enjoying their evening in an Hawaiian atmosphere.

Music for the evening was furnished by Bob Aulenbach and his Orchestra.

Blue Hawaii

What do you think of first when you think of Hawaii? Probably the clear blue skies, beautiful blue water and palm trees and little grass huts.

Into this enchanted land, adventured those who attended the 1964 Junior-Senior Prom, held on May 8, 1964 from 8:30-11:30 in the Kennard-Dale gymnasium.

Music for this most delightful evening was provided by Bob Aulencach and his orchestra.

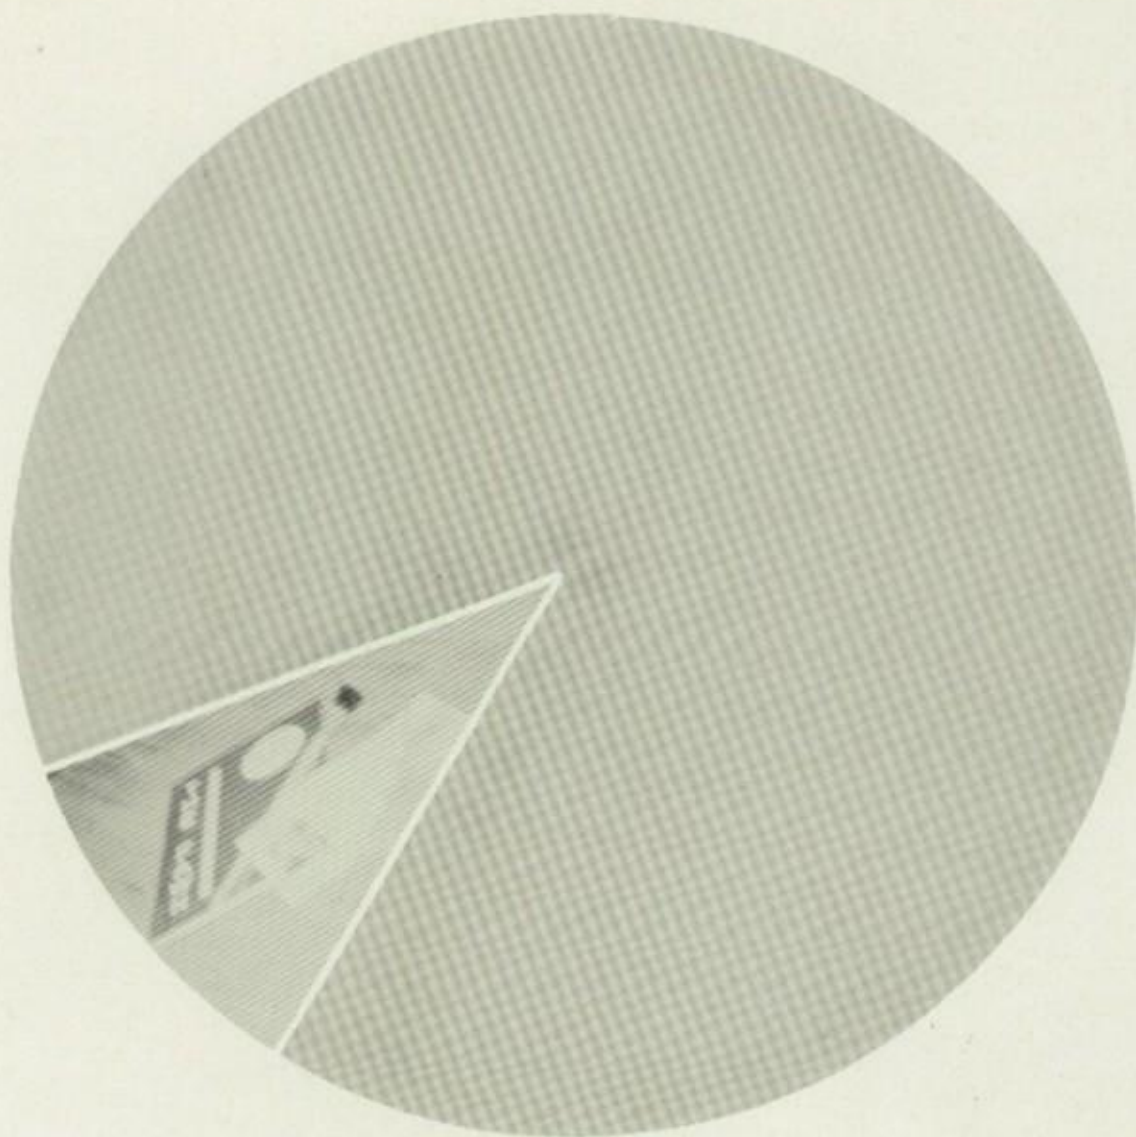

CROWN BEARERS: D. Kinard, D. McGreevy, M. McGreevy.

MEMBERS OF THE COURT: G. Manifold, J. Ashbaugh, R. Webb, S. Weible, D. McGreevy, D. Kinard. Crown Bearers: J. Robinson, King; N. Trout, Queen; J. Neal, J. Wolf.

A C T I V I T I E S

It is only through this portion of the book that our school produces interests in many different fields. At Kennard-Dale we are given the opportunity to choose the activity in which we are most interested.

This section contains our governing body. This body is made up of our students who help to govern our school.

Each activity benefits our school in its own way. Each organization gives all it can for the furthering of education and cooperation with others which gives our future citizens of the United States a better foundation on which to build a bigger and better world.

provides a place for an expression of the students' opinion. It sponsors various activities each year, such as professional and student assemblies, record hops after basketball games, homecoming festivities, and projects to improve our facilities and make life at Kennard-Dale more enjoyable.

S P O R T S

Sports at Kennard-Dale contribute to one of the most important parts of the Full Circle. There are many sports at K.D. in which the students may participate. These sports are football, basketball, volleyball, wrestling, track and baseball. Sports should be played without dissensions and prejudices between players. Only those players who can collaborate without these petty dissensions can have a good team. Strong desire, good spirit, and a lot of hustling are signs of a good player or a good team.

Along with the credit being given to the athletes, there should be much credit given to the coaches for their time and effort to develop better athletes and winning teams at Kennard-Dale
